Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

MADRID, October 4.

UPON Advice that the English intended to execute some Enterprize against Buenos Ayres, or some of the South-Sea Settlements, the King has caus'd the four Ships which some Months ago came from the West-Indies, to be converted into Men of War; and these, with two others, are, as some say, sail'd for the South-Sea; others believe they are intended to join the Ships equipping at Cadiz. It's reported that the English have lately taken two Spanish Ships in the Gulph of Mexico. Advice has been received, that the French Toulon Squadron had pass'd the Streights of Gibraltar the 26th of last Month, steering towards the West-Indies with a fair Wind. As no News has been heard of the Brest Squadron since it appear'd off Cape Finisterre, it is not doubted but that it hath taken the same Rout. M. Vander Meer, Ambassador from the States General, has presented a fresh Memorial to the Court, wherein he insists upon the Restitution of several Dutch Ships taken some Years since, and likewise upon a free Navigation to the West-Indies; and complains of the late Behaviour of a Spanish Privateer to a Dutch Ship. The Marquis de Villarias has assur'd this Ambassador, that the King would cause this last Affair to be examin'd with Attention, and would order new Informations to be taken upon the Subject of the other Grievances.

London, Octo. 17. We hear that the Fleet under Sir Chaloner Ogle is sail'd, with the Troops under Lord Cathcart.

Octo. 20. All the Letters from Corsica confirm the Departure of the Nephew of the Baron de Neuhoff, with his Followers, from that Island, and that the greatest Part of the rest of his Adherents, fatigued with the miserable Life which they have been obliged to lead, had at last implor'd their Pardon of the Marquis de Maillebois, who had granted it them on Condition that they would all quit the Island.

They write from the Hague, that People there are in continual Expectations to hear that the Court of Great-Britain, irritated by the Conduct of France towards it, has declar'd War against that Nation. Tho' this, it's believ'd, is what the French Ministers aim at and desire, in order to justify the Execution of the Projects which it's said they have form'd; for tho' they have in some degree taken off the Mask by sending out their Brest and Toulon Squadrons, yet they are unwilling to be look'd upon as Aggressors.

On Saturday it was reported, that the Ferrol Squadron was seen off the Canaries, waiting there for Provisions from Ireland, which they expected to arrive every Day, being in great Distress for the same, and for want of Hands.

His Majesty's Ship the Lyme, of twenty Guns, arriv'd at Cork the 7th Instant from Portsmouth, in order to cruize on those Coasts, and to oblige all Ships to conform to the Embargo.'

By Letters from the West of England we are inform'd, that several poor People belonging to the Woollen Manufacturies having no Emgloyment, have been oblig'd to eat Grains for their Sustenance.

St. James's, Octo. 16. This Day the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London waited on his Majesty to congratulate him on his safe Return; and being introduced to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Houshold, Sir John Strange, their Recorder, made their Complements in the following Speech.

May it please your Majesty,

'The Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of 'London, most humbly acknowledge the great Honour they re-'ceive, in being admitted into your Royal Presence, with their 'sincere Congratulations upon your safe Return to Great-Bri-'tain: They are sensible of your Majesty's Goodness in mak-'ing your Absence as short as the Necessity of your Affairs a-'broad would permit; and their now seeing your Majesty thus 'in perfect Health, is a Circumstance for which (amongst many 'other Blessings) they have the strongest Reason to be thankful 'to that Divine Providence which watches over you.

'As your Majesty is now engag'd in a War enter'd into for 'preserving the Trade of these Kingdoms, these your Majesty's 'Subjects, so much interested in the Event of it, most chearfully 'bear their Part of so necessary a Burthen, and firmly rely upon 'your Majesty's so conducting this great Affair, as may best ac-'compliish those princely Views to the Prosperity of your People, 'and to the Security of their Trade and Commerce, which 'your Majesty has always most graciously express'd and pursu'd.

'They cannot retire from your Royal Presence without ex-'pressing their ardent Wishes, that your Majesty may long con-'tinue to be this great Blessing to your People, nor without 'giving your Majesty the strongest Assurance of their Loyalty 'and Gratitude, of their inviolable Attachment to your Person 'and Government.'

To which his Majesty was pleas'd to return this most gracious Answer.

'I take very kindly this Mark of your Affection to me and 'my Government: The Zeal which you express for the Sup-'port of this just and necessary War, is very acceptable to me: 'My Endeavours shall never be wanting to carry it on with 'Vigour; and I doubt not, but by the Blessing of God, and 'the Support of my People, they will be attended with Success.'

They all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

Carlow, Sept. 2. Last Monday was buried here, George Austin, aged 120 Years: he had been Clerk to the Parish of Carlow eighty Years, had his Senses to the last Hour, and till within these twelve Months could walk without a Stick.

London, Octo. 4. From Petersburg we hear, that about 50 more State Prisoners in the Fortress have lately been tryed, some of whom have been beheaded, others had their Hands chopp'd off, and the rest had the Punishments of the Knoute, the Badogges, and the Piette inflicted on them.

They

They have alſo Advice at Peterſburg, that Kouli Kan has lately gained a compleat Victory over an Indian King who came to attack him, and made himſelf Maſter of all his Treaſures, amounting to the Value of 150,000,000 of Crowns.

Dublin, Octo. 9. We have an Account, that one Matthew Ryan, who was taken at Waterford, and tranſmitted to Kilkenny, being charged with ſeveral Robberies committed in that County, was tried on the 25th of laſt Month, at the Aſſizes there. When he was apprehended, he pretended to be a Lunatick, ſtript himſelf in the Goal, threw away his Cloaths, and could not be perſuaded to put them on again, but went naked to the Court to take his Trial; he then affected to be Dumb, and would not plead; on which the Judges of the Aſſize order'd a Jury to be empannel'd, to enquire and give their Opinion, whether he was wilfully dumb and lunatick, or by the hand of God; who in a ſhort time return'd, and brought in their Verdict, Wilful and affected Dumbneſs and Lunacy: Upon this, the Judges again deſired the Priſoner to plead, which by Signs he refuſed; notwithſtanding which, they in their great Compaſſion, indulged him till the Monday following, but he ſtill perſiſted in his Obſtinacy, and then the Court order'd him to be preſs'd to Death; and the Sentence was accordingly executed on him the Wedneſday following; but before he expired, he moſt earneſtly entreated to be hang'd, which was refuſed him.

Sept. 16. On Sunday Morning died at his Houſe in Meath-Street, of the Hip, Vapours, or the Strength of Imagination, Peter Marſh, Eſq; who ſome Months ago was riding out, and a Horſe in the Staggers came behind him and took hold of him by the Buckle of his Breeches, and lifted him out of the Saddle, and gave him a Shake and laid him down on the Ground ſafe without any Bite, Bruiſe, Scratch, or any ſort of Harm; the third Day after, the Gentleman who own'd the Horſe, came to ſee Mr. Marſh, and told him that the Horſe which diſmounted him was dead of the Staggers; he being then at Dinner, laid down his Knife and Fork, and ſaid, He then died Mad, and I ſhall die mad too; and from that Inſtant he fancied himſelf mad, altho' he had not one Symptom of it; and if he gave a Yawn or the like, he would immediately cry out, that is the way the Horſe died Mad, and I am mad too, and my Friends will not believe it; and would not take any Preſcriptions that were order'd him, but ſaid they were to no Purpoſe, for nothing would do him good; he continued ſo about four Months. This is an extraordinary and ſingular Caſe, and confounds the Curious and Learned.

Port l'Orient (in France) Sept. 20. We are making the ſame Diſpoſitions here as if we were apprehenſive of a Surprize. M. de Voluire, Major General, has been here this Week paſt. A thouſand Peaſants are actually throwing up an Intrenchment which will ſurround the whole Town. The Troops aſſembled here conſiſt of Nine Companies of the Regiment of Chartres, 300 diſmounted Troopers, 2000 Men of Independent Companies, and 600 of the Militia of Vannes and Avray. The Captains and other Officers in the India Company's Service, have all been regiſter'd; this Body forms 14 Companies of 100 Men each. All the other Servants of the Company form another Company of 65 Men. Arms are to be diſtributed to them in the Place where each body is to aſſemble.

Edinburgh, Sept. 26. We hear there is a prodigious Struggle in many Burroughs in the South of Scotland, relating to their Elections of Magiſtrates, as on one Party's prevailing depends a Vote for a Member of Parliament; and the other ſeems as determin'd to oppoſe the Intereſt, in which theſe Burroughs have appear'd for ſome time paſt. Money, Meat and Drink is in ſuch Plenty in theſe Towns, that People begin to wiſh again for ſober Times. There are now in Lauder no leſs than 15 Wine-houſes. The D. of Queenſberry has done ſeveral generous Actions to the Town of Dumfries, and both Parties there are ſtriving to be Popular.---So that, as the ancient Jews, we have our Jubilee every 7th Year.

London, Sept. 27. The World has been lately ſurprized with the King of Sweden's Letters-Patent for convoking the General Diet of the States of that Kingdom, which was publiſhed the 18th of laſt Month, and was the leſs expected, becauſe it was thought the Miniſtry were againſt it; but it ſeems, they at laſt, by the Advice of the French Ambaſſador, propoſed it in the Senate, whereupon it was agreed to, and the Diet is to aſſemble on the 4th of December next. In the mean time, the French and Ruſſian Parties in that Kingdom are buſy making Intereſt, and 'tis thought there will be a very great Conteſt between French Louis d'Ors and Ruſſian Ducats. Perhaps the latter may be ſupported by ſome Engliſh Guineas, which may be uſefully employed there at this Juncture.

Towards the latter End of laſt Month, as ſome Meal-Waggons were going thro' Verſailles for Paris, the Bakers of that Village ſtopt them, and inſiſted upon the Meal's being ſold to them, which the others refuſing to comply with, and the Bakers being aſſiſted by the Mob, a Tumult enſued, in which 3 or 4 Perſons were killed, particularly a Woman with Child, who came to the Aſſiſtance of her Huſband. But tho' that Village be always full of regular Troops, we do not hear, that any of them were ſent to diſperſe the Mob.

The Intereſt of the Prince of Orange ſeems in ſome of the United Provinces to be upon the Decline; for thoſe of Frieſland, Guelderland, and Groningen, whereof he is Stadtholder, are not ſo condeſcending to him, as they have been heretofore; and at a late Aſſembly of the States of Frieſland, there appeared a Party which complained highly of ſome Encroachments made by the Prince upon the Rights of the States; upon which Occaſion the Diſpute grew ſo warm, that the Aſſembly was ſaid to reſemble a Poliſh Diet, rather than an Aſſembly of wiſe and cool Dutchmen.

Marſeilles, Sept. 30. The King's Galleys are equipped, and ready to put to Sea upon the firſt Order. Part of the Royal Corſican Regiment, have been guilty of ſo many Irregularities, that twelve of the moſt notorious have been ſhot. There has lately eſcaped from the Galleys 26 or 27 Criminals, among whom there were 12 who were employed in carrying Stones to repair the Park; theſe made themſelves Maſters of their Guard, which were 4 in Number, they afterwards obliged the Negro, who had the Care of chaining them together, to ſet them at Liberty.

Vienna, Octob. 1. The Empreſs has been indiſpos'd and kept her Chamber for ſome Days. The Marquis de Mirepoix, Ambaſſador from France, has receiv'd freſh Aſſurances from Count Zintzendorff, of the Emperor's Diſpoſition to remain neuter in the War between England and Spain, eſpecially ſo long as Things are not carried to a greater Extremity. The Ambaſſador has communicated to the Count, the Reaſons which determined his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to ſend his Squadron to the Weſt-Indies; one of which, it's pretended, was to prevent the Treaty of Utrecht from being violated. They write from Gratz, That Count Seckendorff has at length reſolved patiently to wait the Determination of his Fate, having hired a larger Houſe, where he often gives Entertainments to the Nobleſs. The Counteſs, his Spouſe, keeps magnificent Aſſemblies every Week; ſo that, tho' this General continues long under Confinement, it is at leaſt made much leſs rigorous. We are aſſur'd, that it has been reſolved to have always a Body of 25 or 30,000 Imperial Troops in Italy. It has alſo been reſolved to augment the Fortification of Hermanſtadt in Tranſylvania, and to repair the Fortreſſes in Hungary.

Havre de Grace, Octob. 3. Great Pains are taken at the Arſenal of this Town, by Order of the King, in building a Frigate of 24 Guns. Yeſterday arrived here 4 Dutch Galliots, laden with with Corn, on the King's Account; and tho' it was Sunday, three of them were immediately unladen, and the Corn ſent to Paris. Much more is expected from Holland and the North.

Liſle, Octob. 14. They write from Lorrain, that a Project is formed there for uniting the Sambre with the Meuſe.

They write from Dijon, that there has juſt been brought thither a Gang of Thieves of both Sexes, and of all Ages: The Head of them, was diſguis'd like an Hermit, dwelt in a little Houſe in the Woods, about 2 Leagues from this City; wherein was found a large Quantity of Effects, and Coin of all Countries.

Paris, Octob. 14. Cardinal de Fleury and M. Amelot have declared to ſeveral foreign Miniſters, That the Reports which have been ſpread concerning the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Fortifications of Dunkirk, were without Foundation; and that nothing more was done there, than erecting ſome neceſſary Batteries for the Defence of the Place in caſe of Surprize.

BOSTON, December 15.

We have ſurprizing Accounts from the Country, eſpecially the Eaſtern Parts, of Damage done by the overflowing of Rivers, occaſion'd by the late great Rains. 'Tis ſaid above Thirty Mills at the Eaſtward only were carried away, a great many Bridges, many hundred Cords of Firewood, and Logs, Boards, and other Lumber without Account, carried down the Rivers into the Sea. 'Tis ſaid the Inundation was ſo extenſive, that the like was ſcarcely ever known before: And Travellers inform us, that in all Parts of the Province, the Roads are rendered almoſt impaſſable.

We have Letters from Capt. Dumareſque and Capt. Willis, Commanders of the two Privateers belonging to this Place, dated in October laſt at Gibraltar, which came by the way of Liſbon; by which we have Advice, That the ſaid Capt. Willis, being cruiſing off of one the Canary Iſlands, at the South Part was a ſandy Bay, and about 2 or 3 Miles Diſtance they diſcover'd a ſmall Place, containing 60 or 70 Houſes; that contrary to Capt. Willis's Opinion, his Men came to a Reſolution to go aſhore; and accordingly 50 of their ſtouteſt Hands landed on the 1ſt of October, and march'd up towards the Town; but how they came off, is not known; for Capt. Willis, with the Remainder of his Company, continued waiting 4 or 5 Days for their Return, but hearing nothing of them, and ſeeing a conſiderable Number of Spaniards upon the Shore, who made Signals to him to come to them, thereupon thought it not ſafe for him to wait any longer, and therefore ſail'd directly for Gibraltar, where he arriv'd in 6 Days, and was there recruiting, in order to go on another Cruize about the ſame Iſlands.

Capt. Dumareſque writes, That 216 Pipes of Spaniſh Wines he had taken, with a Prize, were condemned at Gibraltar, after his waiting there 2 Months; and that he has taken another Prize ſuppos'd to be worth 5000 l. of our Currency.

We alſo hear, that ſeveral other ſmall Prizes have been taken by Capt. Dumareſque.

Dec. 22. Laſt Wedneſday we had a moſt violent Storm of Wind and Snow, which did a vaſt deal of Damage to the Wharffs and Shipping in this Town, and 'tis ſaid ſeveral Hundred Tons of Timber went adrift from the the Ship-yards, beſides other Loſſes. We hear two Sloops coming in from the Eaſtward were put aſhore at Nahant, and that upwards of twenty Sail, large and ſmall, are aſhore near Marblehead; and Capt. Tilden in a Sloop from Jamaica ran aſhore near Situate, as far as High Water Mark, but the Men had the good Fortune to ſave their Lives, and we hear the Sloop has received little or no Damage. A Ship outward bound, Capt.--------Commander, ran aſhore in the ſaid Storm upon Rainsford's Iſland, and 'tis ſaid ſhe is bilged. Alſo a new Ship coming in from Piſcataqua, is caſt away near Cohaſſet, and all the People drowned; and we hear ſeveral Pieces of Veſſels, and ſundry Sorts of Goods have been taken up on the South-Shore, by which it is certain that ſome other inward bound Veſſels are loſt.

On Mr. JOHN WESLEY'S SERMON on FREE GRACE.

MAyſt Thou, GREAT MAN, withſtand a miſled Throng,
And prove, with Aid divine, their Teachers wrong.
May GOD a Bleſſing to Thy Words impart,
And deep engrave them on each Hearer's Heart.
Our SAVIOUR's Love to ALL THE WORLD declare,
Nor all the Mighty Rage of Mortals fear.
With Goſpel-Truths their narrow Thoughts explode
Who boldly ſtint the Mercies of their GOD.
O CHARITY! Oh whither art thou fled?
When wilt thou raiſe again thy drooping Head?
When wilt thou abject Bigotry remove,
And every Breaſt inſpire with Social Love?
Preachers, without thy Aid, perhaps may raiſe
Our Paſſions, and a while command our Praiſe;
But bleſt with thy Aſſiſtance, ſoon we find
Impulſes of a more exalted Kind.
Such felt the Shepherds, when th' Angelic Throng
In Heav'nly Anthems Man's Redemption ſung.
